

Backnumbers and special rule for J1 and deaf athletes

Extract from the IBSA JUDO
REGULATIONS (IJR) point 5 & 6
& the new judo-gi measure

BACKNUMBERS IN GENERAL

The use of an official back number is mandatory. Ensuring this is the responsibility of the participating country.

The list of IJF approved judogi suppliers is available at <https://www.ijf.org/supplier-list>. The judogi consists of a jacket and a pair of trousers and must be worn with a belt. The brand of both the jacket and trousers must be the same. Female competitors shall also wear a white T-shirt.

The backnumber should include the name of the judoka and the NOC abbreviation of the country. It should be ordered in an adequate time before the competition. Please see: <https://www.officialbacknumber.com/>

If there is a lack of a proper judo-gi and a back number the local organizers provide a proper judo-gi from the reserve judo-gi, but in this case the coach is not allow to escort the judoka to the mat and coaching. The LOC provide an escort. Sewing the sign of blindness for J1 athletes (red circle) and deafness (yellow circle) on the judo-gi back number is the responsibility of the participating countries. The local organizers should provide red and yellow stickers for the reserve judo-gi backnumber (sticker).

It is strongly recommended that the judoka bring two back numbers in their own name to the competition.

The LOC provides sewing machine to sew the back number.

“MARKING ON J1 ATHLETES AND DEAF ATHLETES

J1 competitors are required to wear the red mark. The mark is a red circle placed on the official back number.

A deaf athlete is required to wear the yellow mark. The mark is a yellow circle placed on the official back number. (See the example below.)”

example:

The place of the marking is changed from January 1st 2022.

- The red circle is recommended to use after the first official international eye classification.
 - It is obligatory to use it from the start of the qualification series.
- The yellow circle is recommended to use from January 1st 2022.
 - It is obligatory to use it from the start of the qualification series.

In the case that, in the absence of an eye examination, it is not certain whether the competitor belongs to the J1 or J2 class, the organizers provide the red circle and there is no penalty.

JUDO-GI RULES – EXTENTION OF TOLERANCE PERIOD

The tolerance period is extended until January 1st 2023 of the judo-gi regulation for the Paralympic circle 2022-2024.

(Followed by the IJF regulation.)
